#WestCareCA

A Welcome by our Deputy COO, Shawn Jenkins

Shawn Jenkins

"WestCare Family, The purpose of Father's Day in June is clear: Families spend some quality time with dad and maybe buy him a gift to show their appreciation. I believe we all have an idea of what it means to be a 'Good' dad and with Father's Day having come and gone, I wanted to share with you my thoughts on what I believe to be the true meaning of what I call 'Just Being a Dad.'

Here is what being a dad means to me:

- Requires that you know there's a difference between protecting and preventing.
- Involves the transition from being someone who was selfish to one who is selfless.
- Causes me to accept the fact that it's really no longer about me anymore.
- Means remembering that we have not inherited this planet from our ancestors, rather we are only borrowing it from our children.
- Demands that I always keep in mind that one generation plants the trees, while the next gets the shade.
- Asks that I always keep in mind that the greater good is far more important than the perceived greatness of having goods.
- Involves being able to walk a mile in pint-sized shoes.
- Requires that you be comfortable with being a hero to someone, but respectful of the power that being a hero entails.
- Means that just as soon as you've figured some aspect of parenting out, you have to learn another one as the kids keep changing too.

- Involves knowing that your kids are watching and listening to everything you do or say.
- Requires that you know how to build a fort which no army could ever get past, followed by knowing how to make the best hot chocolate EVER once you come back inside.
- Teaches you how to survive with less sleep, since your kids will get you up during the night when they are younger and keep you up at night once they are older.
- Means that you make mistakes along the way and that while you think you've just ruined your child for life in the process, you discover they're actually more resilient than you think.
- Requires you to remember that once upon a time you did the same senseless and stupid things as a kid that your kids do today and yet you somehow still survived.
- Teaches you that you don't actually need to go to the gym when your kids are young since they are more than happy to act as substitute weights to perform chest presses, arm curls, push-ups and sit-ups.

a son's first
HERO
a daughter's first

- Prepares you for hearing the word 'Again' each and every time you do something with the kids that is fun for them but physically draining for yourself.
- Quickly teaches you that no matter how many times you say, 'Just this once,' it will have no bearing whatsoever on how many times you'll be asked to do it.
- Nowadays requires that you are just as skilled with a spatula as you are with a screwdriver.
- Is at the same time both the scariest accomplishment I have ever achieved (or ever will achieve) as well as the greatest accomplishment ever...by far!"

Sincerely,

Father's Day Sentiments from the WestCare Family:

"Dad, I never considered you a step-dad even though you were. You were not perfect, but you were mine. You taught me work hard, to admit my shortcomings/mistakes and to stand up for myself and my beliefs. You loved me and were the father you didn't have to be. I have tried to emulate your positive traits and learn from your mistakes to be a better father to my boys. I am grateful for all the love and life lessons as they've helped shape me into the man I am today. You made sure to prepare me for the day when you were no longer here and even though I didn't think I was ready for that day, you knew I was and would be okay. I love you, miss you and know you're listening when I communicate with you. See you soon."

- Shawn Jenkins, Deputy COO, Administration

"My dad was and is the world to me." - James Glass, Kitchen Manager, Bakersfield Residential

"My dad is my motivation, my strength and my rock! Throughout my life, he has encouraged me to never give up, to be independent and to be all I can be. For all I am today, I thank him!"

- Maria Rodriguez, Program Director, Housing Services

"What my father means to me is strength, caring, positivity, values and love."- Stacie Dunn, Administrative Assistant, Administration

"My dad always inspired me with his perseverance and kindness. I recently lost him on March 18, 2019 and miss him every day." - Holly Bishop, Program Director, Wasco State Prison (WSP)

"My dad was a patient and kind man. He raised eight boys and four girls. You know the saying, 'Wait until your father gets home.' If mom said that to you, you were in for a 30+ min lecture about the behavior. That was worse than a spanking!" - Debra Magana-Parsons, CBT Facilitator, Wasco State Prison (WSP)

"My dad taught me to be myself & do what makes you happy. He has always inspired me to reach for the stars."

- Crystal Gomez, Counselor Tech, Bakersfield Residential

"My dad is my biggest supporter." - Katie Tkac, Entry Counselor, Valley State Prison (VSP)

"My dad is my hero and my rock. He taught me to be strong, stand out and speak up! #SiSePuede" - Gabriela Espinosa-McNiel, Director of Marketing, Administration

"My dad was the greatest! He was a U.S. Marine, strong, loving, lived his life to the fullest everyday and taught me what it was to be a true husband and father. My father passed from cancer on May 4, 2017 and I miss him very much." - David Bohlen, Outpatient Counselor, Bakersfield Outpatient

"My father is Ralph Shadle. He gave me his work ethic, patience with others and love for the outdoors. His family taught me about country living, a good day's work and how much God loves me. I didn't know how much my parents did without while my brother and I were growing up. Words can't describe my appreciation for all that they have done for me." - Lynn Stevens, Data Entry Specialist/ Receptionist, MLK Residential

"The gift and memory my dad gave me was his tenacity to provide for his family without complaint." - Richard Duron, Counselor Tech, Fresno Adult Outpatient

"My dad is my hero and the greatest man I ever knew." - Michelle Gregory, Community Service Specialist, STOP Area I (Chico)

"I'll always be grateful for my dad teaching me the importance of hard work, ingenuity and holding strong to your principles, like his father did with him." - Michael Mygind, Marketing Specialist, Administration

We'd like to congratulate our newest WestCare California graduates from Fresno, Hanford and Bakersfield who participated in our 2019 Spring Graduation! To our newest Alumni, we wish only the best for you all on this exciting new road that lies ahead! We also held special memorial tributes for our friend and colleague, Neadly Foster and Sabrina V, whom we also lost this year, but was eligible to graduate. The event was truly a night to remember and we would like to thank everyone who attended as well as our wonderful Graduation Committee that helped make it so special!

"Thank You, MLK" by Carlos (MLK Residential)

Foreword by Gilbert De La Fuente

"Carlos is a pleasure to have on my caseload and an excellent big brother in the facility. Carlos strives every day to get the most of himself in recovery. He is humble, motivated and eager to learn. His awareness and willingness to do what it takes has transformed his outlook on life already just this first month of treatment. I am excited to see what the future has in store for this man and I am proud of his journey so far." - Gilbert De La Fuente, Men's Counselor, MLK Residential

"Where do I start? How about by saying, 'Yes I can!' better yet, 'Yes WE can!' Yes, we can achieve anything we set our minds to. Yes we can change our lives. Remember, this is the beginning of a new life - it only gets better from here. I would like to take the time to thank the wonderful people that make up the MLK Men's Residential program.

It Gets Better

Men's Unit Counselors:

To Gilbert: My counselor - thank you for taking the time to listen and give me advice. You are stern when necessary and full of smiles. You are always available to help. Thank you, Gilbert.

To Bryan: MLK's youngest residential counselor whose ego is at times misunderstood. He doesn't look a day over twenty and his ego is no higher than he stands. He may not tell you what you want to hear, but 99% of the time, he is telling you what you need to hear. Not only is he professional, but he is a strong believer in the program. 'It works.' His appearance and attitude grab the client's attention and show them that they too can move forward with their lives. Thank you, Bryan.

To Casey: Your classes are a boat load of information, you're always to the point and you have a no holds barred attitude. His classes are well taught and organized. He gets us into such a comfort zone that you forget that you are amongst staff. He grabs our attention and we always look forward to his lessons. Thank you, Casey.

*"This is the beginning of a new life
- it only gets better from here."*

- Carlos

To Vince: The killer of bullcrap. He means what he says and says what he means. That is an excellent way to show and teach us that everything is not a joke or game. 'Life is serious. Grow up, earn your way through life and be prepared so you can harvest the splendid things in life,' are all important life lessons that Vince preaches and teaches. Thank you, Vince.

To Mona: She has such a healing spirit about her that she can will you back into conduct. Thank you, Mona.

To Robert: A soft spoken man whose words are powerful. His positive vibes are much appreciated around MLK. Thank you, Robert.

To Sophia: She is a mixture of all that has already been said. A living masterpiece. Thank you, Sophia.

Men's Unit Facilitators:

To Mercedes: While your teachings are a bit unconventional, it allows us to improve the changes that need to be made. Her classes are sort of like taking a look in the mirror. We often improvise real life scenarios to see how we would react now that we're in recovery. She is a different type of facilitator. Thank you, Mercedes.

To John: Always ready to seize the day. He welcomes new clients into the program and gives them a taste of what can be expected during their stay at WestCare. He genuinely cares about the clients and their well-being. You can tell it is not an act. Thank you, John.

To Matt: He is the scenario king, always giving us a raw and new outlook on how to solve and deal with everyday problems. He is a mind and eye-opener. Thank you, Matt.

Men's Unit Case Managers:

To Bobbi, Jojo & Katie: The Three Musketeers, all for one and one for all. They are all extremely work-oriented. They supply values to our hearts and oxygen to our brains. I would love if my future co-workers are just like them. Thank you, Bobbi, Jojo & Katie.

To Brenda: She is a spark of smiles. She respects all individuals and shows you how important you are in today's society. She also stresses how important you are as a client at WestCare. She is an outstanding person and full of life. Thank you, Brenda.

WestCare California Administration:

To Kandi: She is a pleasure to be around and is very sweet, kind, caring and interesting. Once you begin to talk to her, it's like you knew her all of your life. God bless you and thank you for your inspirational talks. I look forward to meeting you again. Thank you, Kandi."

Men's Vocational Team:

"To Deja, Jo & Jeremiah: Wow! What an awesome team. Deja, Jo & Jeremiah are the pillars of the MLK Residential facility. WestCare clients get a new found hope when entering this facility. Their help does not stop with just vocational needs. They leave you with a feeling that you could conquer the world. They represent the, 'Yes I can' attitude. I would like to add that Jeremiah has sought out a non-profit organization to donate 5,000 pairs of socks. This staff member actively seeks out resources that could benefit the clientele. Providing comfort helps our community greatly. That in and of itself is very time consuming and when someone gives you their time for the sake of your wellbeing, that is an act of love. Thank you, Deja, Jo & Jeremiah.

Men's Unit Coordinator:

To Justin: Our supervisor who reminds me of the Statue of Atlas. He is all for all. His cares are also his worries. He keeps this facility in tip top shape and shows no favoritism. If his workers are not at their best, then he is not at his best. He does great at following up with his employees to insure that the clients are receiving the best treatment possible. What goes on behind the curtains is at times displayed in front of all, but it may go unnoticed or unappreciated. I am here to let you know that your work is generous and appreciated. Thank you, Justin.

MLK Kitchen Staff:

To Ms. Charlene, Brandi, Blanca & Pablo: I would like to thank all the cooks on behalf of all the residential clients for providing such superb services. Your cooking has not only filled our stomachs, but our hearts. A special thanks to Trey for suggesting a Father's Day menu and Brandi for being generous enough to carry it out. Thank you for always having listening ears and caring hearts. Thank you, Ms. Charlene, Brandi, Blanca & Pablo.

Men's Core Members:

To Core: I will and cannot forget about the Core members as they are the future leaders of our community. They represent the clients' voice and step up when needed. They are so appreciated and respected; true friends indeed. I picture them as the Knights of the Round Table, gladiators or Jedi warriors. They have the courage to advocate for what is right; they are models of positivity. Thank you, Core members.

Lastly, I would like to thank all of the WestCare staff at MLK that did not get mentioned by name. Your time and concern for the clients' well-being is greatly appreciated. They are all hard workers and all deserve to be recognized.

Thank you, MLK."

Sincerely,

Carlos

Health & Wellness Corner

"Summertime Safety 101" by Angie Jenkins, Program Director, Fresno Admissions/ Adult Outpatient

"Summertime is a wonderful time for getting out in nature, spending time with friends at the lake or by the pool - simply enjoying the beautiful outdoors. While these activities can be beneficial to our body and spirit, we also need to be mindful of potential consequences too much fun in the sun can bring. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) offer some excellent tips on their website to stay safe and prevent heat-related illness.

According to the CDC, infants and children up to four years of age, people 65 and older, people who are overweight and individuals who are ill or on certain medications are at a higher risk for heat-related illness. Heat stroke, heat exhaustion, heat cramps, sunburn and heat rash are all forms of heat-related illness with heat stroke being the most serious of all.

Heat stroke occurs when the body is unable to regulate its temperature. Body temperature rises rapidly (Possibly up to 106 degrees within 10-15 minutes) and the body is unable to sweat and cool down. Warning signs of heat stroke may include: High body temperature (Above 103 degrees), hot and dry skin, rapid pulse, throbbing headache, nausea, confusion and even unconsciousness. Heat stroke is a life threatening condition. If you think someone might be experiencing heat stroke, the CDC recommends you do the following:

- Call 911 immediately.
- Get the victim to a shady area.
- Cool the victim rapidly using whatever methods you can. Example: Immerse the individual in a tub of cool water, place the person in a cool shower or spray them with cool water from a garden hose.
- Monitor body temperature until temp drops to 101 -102 degrees
- DO NOT give the victim alcohol to drink.

There are many proactive measures we can take to stay safe, cool and avoid any heat-related illnesses. Consider the following as a means to stay healthy and happy during the summer months:

- Stay hydrated! Drink lots of water and do not wait until you feel thirsty to do so. (If your physician limits the amount of water you drink due to medications or other health reasons, ask how much you should be consuming in hot weather)
- Remember to also keep your pets hydrated! They too can fall victim to the heat. Morning walks are ideal as cement can still be hot in the evening.
- Wear clothing that is lightweight, light colored and loose fitting.
- Limit time outdoors and rest in shady areas if needed.
- Make sure not to overexert yourself. Limit strenuous activities during hot weather.
- Listen to what your momma said and wear your sunscreen (Look for labels that indicate 'Broad spectrum' or 'UVA/UVB Protection')
- DO NOT leave your children or your pets in a car even for short periods of time!
- If out swimming, ask someone to join you so you don't swim alone.

Summertime is a great time to reconnect with friends, nature and ourselves. Take the time to enjoy this season of life and stay safe doing it!" - Angie Jenkins, Program Director, Fresno Admissions/Adult Outpatient

Kudos!

The Men and Women of MLK Residential

We'd like to send a tremendous thank you to those that we serve at MLK Residential in Fresno for their weeks of rehearsing "The Living

In the weeks leading up, staff mentioned that it wasn't uncommon to see fellow staff in tears listening to the rehearsal! We'd like to thank our amazing singers, soloists and Women 2 Women Counselor, Veronica Gonzales, for leading the rehearsals!

"I had the pleasure of presenting two tokens to Case Manager, Gene Vosburg this morning. Gene was awarded the 'Caught Doing Something Good' token for his excellence in case file management. I know when I review Gene's files that they are going to be up to date and orderly. Gene was also awarded the 'Uplifting the Human Spirit' token for his constant kindness to everyone who enters our doors. Whether they are DRC participants or someone seeking help, Gene is right there with a smile and a warm greeting. It is such a pleasure working with Gene and he is truly deserving of these awards and much more!" - Jeff Estes, Program Coordinator, Day Reporting Center

We'd like to congratulate all of our staff who participated in the Advanced Motivational Interviewing Academy in June! Each participant completed a minimum of 19 hours of coursework under the supervision of UCLA Integrated Substance Abuse Programs. We'd like to thank all who participated as well as our wonderful instructors!

Christopher Perez, Facilitator, MLK Residential

"A client recently submitted a compliment regarding Chris: 'This thank you is for our facilitator, Chris P. I am thankful for his compassion in teaching us in our class. He also participates in the classes he teaches, he shares and allows for each of us to share and express ourselves and acknowledges it.'

As Chris's supervisor, he shows great boundaries, is prepared for groups and does well to break the barriers on our unit for the women. He shows great empathy for the ladies on our unit and that healthy relationships are possible between both genders!" - Mary Greene, Women's Residential Coordinator, MLK Residential
